Arduino Starter Kit — Mobile Station #3
Click here for more information

The above image includes components included in the Arduino Starter Kit. It allows the user to become familiar with programming and includes 15 different projects. The kit may be powered through a connection with a laptop. These devices are not generally set out throughout the entire day. The library should set up the mobile station for specific hours during the week and check it out for in-library use.

VIDEO

https://youtu.be/NGRqWaIECm8